

Surname, name:
Address:
Postcode, City,
Country

E-Mail:
Phone:

Dean of the Faculty for Georesources and Materials Engineering of RWTH Aachen University
Intzestr. 1
52056 Aachen

Application for Admission to the Doctoral Examination according to § 13 of Post-Graduate Study Regulations of the Faculty of Georesources and Materials Engineering

I enclose my thesis and kindly request admission to the Materials doctoral examination at the Faculty of Georesources and Engineering of RWTH Aachen University.

The thesis was supervised by:

1. Adviser:
Address:
2. Adviser:
Address:
3. Adviser:
Address:

I enclose the following documents with this application:

- updated tabular curriculum vitae (signed and dated)
- 1 hardcopy of the doctoral thesis in A4 format and in glue binding and a softcopy/the electronic version on data carrier
- Publication list (copies of publications only by direct request)
- Abstract of the doctoral thesis (german/english, maximum 2 pages each)
- certificates and documents that are not already submitted as an officially certified copy
- Copy of confirmation letter of eligibility for admission (§ 12)
- Certificate of good conduct (Document type O) has been applied for and will be sent directly to the dean's office (or Certificate from the personnel department of the public or church authority to which a police clearance certificate was provided upon commencement of employment)
- Proof of having passed the course "Securing good scientific practice" or similar (necessary only for application § 12 after 01/10/2020)

(Dissertations that were written externally to RWTH Aachen University: Declaration under oath for the protection of trade secrets and patents, see template)

I declare by oath that I have written the dissertation by myself, that I have specified all the help I have used in the dissertation and that the printed and electronic versions of the thesis are identical.

I have respected the principles of good scientific practice of the RWTH Aachen University.

Furthermore, I declare that with the participation of other guests and listeners in my oral doctoral examination I will

I would like to receive an English transcript in addition to the official certificate.